AMERSON SUPERVISOR
SAFETY AWARD

Mental Health Essentials

Better your understanding to help you be your best and be prepared to assist friends, family members, and colleagues

Throughout this 7-part regional Members First series, our Director of Safety Services, Rob McKinney, will present the Amerson Supervisor Safety Award certificates to the best of the best field supervisors.

During the series, he'll also spotlight Mental Health Essentials. Together with Mike Luster, a 20-year mental health clinician and certified wellness specialist with a focus on the construction industry, Rob will help participants learn how to understand, recognize, and respond to the most common mental health challenges such as depression, anxiety, trauma, and substance use disorders.

Join in this thought-provoking discussion to discover ways to help not only yourself be at your best but be a resource and support to others at home, in the office, and on the jobsite.
