

Danielle DeAgostino, a country music and beach lover from Clearwater, Fla., and Maryland, currently resides in Sandy Springs. She joined AGC Georgia in 2024.

Passionate about public relations and sports management, Danielle graduated from The University of Southern Mississippi. As a Marketing and Communications intern with the university's athletic department, Danielle collaborated with the baseball team and held positions in Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Outside of work, she enjoys thrifting, concerts and time with family. Currently immersed in wedding planning, she eagerly anticipates tying the knot with fiancé Hayes Ryan in the spring of 2025. Danielle also coaches a girls softball team, showcasing her commitment to community empowerment.