

Georgia Branch, AGC's
YOUNG LEADERSHIP PROGRAM ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

Gain Cooperation &
Build a Winning Team

Tuesday, January 31, 2012 at 11:30 am - 1:30 pm

Georgia Branch, AGC Training Center; 1940 The Exchange, Suite 300; Atlanta, GA 30339

Members of the Young Leadership Program invite representatives of all Chapter firms to participate in their Roundtable Discussion featuring a valuable topic by Rod Eckard of Dale Carnegie of Georgia. All employees of a company, regardless of their title and position are leaders. It is everyone's responsibility to help inspire those they work with, leading to greater cooperation by all parties and a rewarding team experience. As an integral part in your firm's success, what are you doing to move new ideas forward, build consensus and serve as a problem solver through a positive, proactive approach? Participation in this seminar will help you further develop and refine your confident and enthusiastic take-charge attitude.

WORKSHOP SYNOPSIS

- Influence others through trust and respect
- Gain cooperation instead of compliance
- Discover the power of finding points of agreement with those with whom you disagree
- Win people to your way of thinking by using Dale Carnegie's Human Relations Principles
- Avoid conflict by taking control of disagreements in a positive way

Don't wait to register! We're expecting a full-house for this unique and informative presentation. Lunch will be provided to everyone who registers by Tuesday, January 24, 2012.
