Georgia Branch, AGC understands the value of our member's expertise, and we are pleased to offer a complimentary informational Lunch & Learn session by Jeffrey L. Evans of the Law Office of Jeffrey L. Evans, LLC

Not happy with your arbitrations? Seems like you're always "losing"? Can't figure out what the arbitrator did or why the arbitrator awarded the other side too much money? Jeffrey L. Evans of the Law Office of Jeffrey L. Evans, LLC, has been practicing construction law over 21 years and has a great deal of dispute resolution and arbitration experience. At this Lunch and Learn meeting he will inform AGC's members about more effective and cost efficient ways to resolve disputes, avoid costly arbitrations and mediations, and fix and improve member's contractual dispute provisions so that they can stay in control of their disputes and keep their hard earned money.

Mr. Evans is the first attorney in Georgia to have an arbitration award vacated for manifest disregard of the law and he recently argued the case before the Georgia Supreme Court. He will explain the various problems with the current pre-printed dispute resolution provisions in AGC and AIA construction contracts, the difficulties and challenges of arbitrating or litigating construction disputes and he will provide straightforward and cost saving solutions for AGC members.
