After your firm's salary line item, insurance is probably your next largest investment. With more than 20 years of industry experience, Greg Dorsey, Assistant Vice President of Affinity Service Group plans to discuss the best ways to manage your workers' compensation cost, the importance of offering modified work programs, the impact of drug testing on work-related injuries and red flags for workers' compensation fraud.

These topics are key pieces of information all employers need to know more about to gain greater control of the insurance system which has so much impact on a company's bottom line. Regardless of your carrier or agent, this program offers useful "take away" action items you can implement in your company. Make plans to attend this informative and possibly cost savings program.

Note: Affinity Service Group is Georgia Branch, AGC's wholly-owned subsidiary and third party administrator of the Chapter's workers' compensation program, CompTrust AGC MCIC.

Best Safety Practices & OSHA Compliance

Southeast Georgia/Savannah Region

Tues., March 30, 2010
11:30 am to 1:00 pm
Savannah Golf Club
1661 East President St, Savannah

Staying on top of best safety practices and OSHA regulations is a full-time job! Fortunately for Georgia Branch, AGC members, the Chapter has a team of safety professionals available to answer your questions and guide you to the best safety program you can offer. The Chapter's excellent relationship with Georgia's OSHA leadership also serves as a vital resource for members.

Brian Wood, the Vice President and Safety Director for Affinity Service Group, the Chapter's wholly-owned subsidiary, and OSHA representatives plan to discuss how contractors can enhance the overall safety performance on all jobsites while protecting their company from OSHA violations and multi-employer citations. They also plan to review the most common causes of injuries and fatalities to help contractors keep safety top-of-mind for all employees. Everyone is encouraged to participate in this meeting. Safety professionals and field supervisors have a lot to offer and gain during this discussion.

Mark your calendar now for these additional membership opportunities. For details and registration flyers, visit www.agcga.org.
