AGC Safety Day 2008

The Ron Amerson Supervisors' Safety Awards Nomination Form

Only employees of Georgia Branch, AGC member firms are eligible for nomination. Deadline for nomination is March 18, 2008.

In conjunction with AGC Safety Day 2008 on March 28, Georgia Branch, AGC proudly hosts the Ron Amerson Supervisors' Safety Awards. This member program is designed to recognize supervisors for outstanding contributions to safety on their job sites during calendar year 2007. Please include only your supervisors who have shown a commitment to outstanding safety during 2007. The awards are presented during the safety conference luncheon.

Purpose of Awards . . . to recognize supervisors of our member firms for their contributions to providing a safe work place for employees.

Measurement Criteria . . . based on safety incidence rates for individual supervisors in conjunction with actual man-hours directly supervised by each employee. The entry form below is for listing each supervisor's data.

Benefits of Participation . . . opportunity for superintendents and their firm to be recognized in front of industry peers in this statewide forum for outstanding efforts toward providing safe work environments.

Award Levels . . . Levels of recognition for superintendents are as follows:

- Less than 10,000 Man-Hours
- 10,000-24,999 Man-Hours
- 25,000-49,999 Man-Hours
- 50,000 or more Man-Hours

The man-hours include supervised time for employees on the member company's payroll.
Do not include your time for your subcontractors or temporary labor.
