Fall Protection

September 28 ♦ AGC Offices, Atlanta

OSHA's Subpart M states "Employers have a duty to provide fall protection when employees are at risk of falling 6 feet or more." Last year 33 percent of all fatal workplace accidents were caused by falls, and 70 percent of these falls occurred at construction sites. As a result, OSHA's compliance officers are specifically trained to identify fall hazards and perform on-the-spot inspection and will conduct enforcement operations at worksites.

Most of these falls are preventable by worker training and compliance with the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) Subpart M.

This course offers information on the following:

- OSHA's Subpart M
- Scope and application
- Definitions
- Guardrail systems
- Safety nets
- Personal fall arrest systems
- Positioning devices
- Warning line systems
- Controlled access zones
- Safety monitoring systems
- Fall protection plans
- Training requirements

Length: 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Cost: $185, Georgia Branch, AGC Members;
$166.50 AGC Young Leaders; $285 Non-members

Lunch is included

LEED Green Associate Exam Prep

September 29 ♦ AGC Offices, Atlanta

This full-day course offers an overview of the LEED framework and concepts of integrated design as well as policies and procedures for working within the LEED program. Attendees will learn about the tools and resources available such as LEED Online as well as the applicable standards utilized in the LEED program. Attendees will also gain an understanding of sustainable design strategies in the built environment. This course will introduce attendees to the LEED Accredited Professional program areas. Visit www.gbci.org for additional information on the Green Building Certification Institute's levels of tiered LEED credentials.

EPA Certified Renovator for Lead Renovation, Repair & Painting

October 29 ♦ Atlanta

If your firm renovates or repairs housing, child care facilities, or schools built before 1978, there is a new EPA requirement that affects you.

Firms may enroll in or apply to enroll in a certified renovator class by September 30, 2010 but must complete training by December 31, 2010 to avoid EPA fines of up to $37,500 per day per violation.

All contractors, painters, remodeling firms, window installers, maintenance workers, and others who perform renovations, repairs, and painting projects that could disturb lead-based paint in homes, apartments, child care facilities, and schools built before 1978 must be certified as a Renovation Firm.

- There must be at least one Certified Renovator assigned to jobs where lead-based paint is disturbed
- To become a Certified Renovator, you must complete this one-day Renovation, Repair and Painting (RR & P) course

What you will learn

- Lead-based paint and how it affects health
- Details on understanding and meeting the RR&P regulations
- Working safely in housing with lead-based paint
- Communication, paint testing, work practices and final cleaning issues
- Complying with the EPA's RR&P Rule and HUD's Lead-Safe Housing Rule

Length: 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Cost: $300 Georgia Branch, AGC Members;

$270 GA Branch, AGC Young Leaders;
