AGC Georgia's 2019-2020 President Brian Daniel is looking forward to visiting with many of you in your hometowns and learning how AGC Georgia can better serve you and your team. This meeting is a great time for you to invite a friendly competitor or a project team member who is not already active in AGC Georgia to the luncheon to share the association's benefits. Please plan to join us at one of the meetings near your office or jobsite!

Brian enjoyed visiting with many members during his time at some of the November 2019 Skills Challenges and wants to continue dialogue on how to be purposeful in bringing more young people into the industry.

He's also excited to share his vision for replicating an apprenticeship program that he started in his region. The program is designed to develop project superintendents for contractors. With so many seasoned industry representatives retiring, the knowledge gap in our workforce is growing and action must be taken. Brian is passionate about the industry working together to take proactive, measurable steps to move the needle in the right direction.

Throughout the remainder of the year, Brian also wants to work with fellow members to find more ways to grow the AGC Georgia Foundation. He believes AGC Georgia has the power to do great things through a 501c(3) entity and hopes with a bigger emphasis on fundraising for the Foundation the association can make an even broader and more meaningful impact on construction education and community support.

Mike Dunham, AGC Georgia's CEO, will join Brian on his tour. They are looking forward to learning what's going on in your local markets, getting your reaction to proposals up for debate in the 2020 General Assembly and having an open conversation about how AGC Georgia can be of service.
