

2022: U.S. & Georgia Construction Outlook: Peachy or the Pits?

*Featuring Ken Simonson
AGC of America's Chief Economist*

Tuesday, August 23, 2022

8:30 am – 9:30 am

In-person networking starts at 8:00 am

Zoom starts at 8:30 am

AGC Georgia's Hybrid Room

1940 The Exchange

Atlanta, GA 30339

Demand for construction has been strong, both nationally and in Georgia. But there are growing concerns that a slowing economy may drag down construction in the near future. Ken Simonson, chief economist for AGC of America, will review the latest developments affecting construction labor, materials, and project types, and provide his fearless forecast for the coming year.
