

Lunch and Learn

Over the last 15 years, the use of controlled insurance programs, commonly known as wrap-ups, has continued to increase on projects of various size and scope. Whether Owner Controlled Insurance Programs (OCIPs) or Contractor Controlled Insurance Programs (CCIPs), these programs have significant differences from traditional programs and can lead to confusion. Lifting the veil on the common questions companies face can unlock benefits for contractors of all trades as the prevalence of Wrap-Ups continues to grow.

This session will introduce the “ins and outs” of wraps by exploring the following topics:

- What is a Wrap-Up?
- Different Types of Wrap-Ups
- Traditional Insurance vs. Wrap-Ups
- Advantages of Wrap-Ups
- Administration Process

Content is geared toward both general and specialty contractors and will be of interest to risk managers, CFOs, purchasing and estimating personnel, executive teams, and general counsels.
