

Learn more about Naloxone, aka Narcan

In-seat and virtual participation offered

About the Lunch & Learn

The use of Narcan has been in the news more and more as the nation's opioid crisis continues to worsen. AGC Georgia is pleased to partner with our longtime friends at Safety Training Solutions to offer this Lunch & Learn to help participants better understand the statistics behind the crisis and ways they can be proactive.

What You Will Learn

- Awareness - Deaths involving synthetic opioids (primarily Fentanyl) continue to rise. There are over 107,000 drug overdoses reported each year.
- Prevention - Participants will identify the signs and symptoms of an opioid overdose, know how to access Naloxone, and properly administer the medication.
- Action - Through education and training of the administration of Naloxone we can save lives.
