

2024 Standard for Electrical Safety in the Workplace

Learn your Pathway to becoming NFPA 70E Compliant

Overview

The New 2024 NFPA 70E Edition is here and along with NFPA 70B the new STANDARD for Electrical Equipment and Maintenance went into effect on January 1, 2024. It is critical that your company's jobsite leadership teams are up to date on these new requirements.

Each year electrical dangers in the workplace cause hundreds of deaths and thousands of injuries. NFPA 70E Standard for Electrical Safety in the Workplace is the key to reducing liability and avoiding loss due to electrical incidents. This course teaches participants how to apply the newest edition of NFPA 70E to assess electrical risk and reduce employee exposure to potentially deadly hazards.

Who should attend?

Safety/risk managers, project managers, electrical and mechanical engineers, electricians, facility managers and maintenance personnel, installers, designers, operations managers, etc.

After completion of training, attendees will receive a certificate of completion and wallet card.

This course qualifies for 2 credit hours of continuing education credits issued through Atlanta Electrical Contractors Association.
