

Cybersecurity and How it's Impacting the Construction Industry

In-seat and virtual participation offered

About the Lunch & Learn

Please join AGC Georgia member, 360 Smart Networks to learn more about the rise in business email compromise (BEC) cyber attacks impacting the construction industry and actions your company can take to combat cyber criminals.

- 91% of cyber-attacks start with email
- 75% of companies have experienced and increase in email-based threats

The construction industry is at a particularly high risk for wire transfer fraud originating from BEC attacks due to the large sums frequently transferred between subcontractors and suppliers. We will share tips and tools that can be implemented to protect your business and clients from potential cyber threats.

Join us to build a stronger, more secure future for the construction industry.
