

WAYS YOU CAN BE INVOLVED IN BUILDING A SUSTAINABLE CONSTRUCTION WORKFORCE

- » Career Fairs - Set up a Booth, Volunteer to be a Speaker
- » Workforce Alliances - 8 Regions around the State of Georgia
- » November Skills Challenges - Planning Meetings, Sponsor, Judge, Materials, Expo Booth
- » Material Needs - Leftover Materials from Jobsites, General Supplies, School Project Needs
- » Empower your Employees to be Involved Personally - Paid time given to talk to the schools their kids go to about industry
- » Sponsoring a Teacher for Camp T & I - Sponsor for Program, Materials Needed and/or Teach
- » Career Day - Talk to Individual Classes
- » Teaching a Trade section from Curriculum - Engage/Utilize Specialty Contractors
- » Toolbox Elementary School Program - Volunteer and/or Sponsor
- » Middle School Construction Programs
- » Counselor and Instructor Externships - Bring to your Office and your Jobsites
- » School Administration/Leaders (Principals, CTAE Coordinators, Work-Based Learning Coordinators, Counselors) - Externships, Support their Attendance to Events, Host a TRADE TALKS at your Office
- » Individual School Construction Advisory Boards/CTAE Boards - Take Ownership of YOUR School
- » Field Trips to Jobsites - Elementary Schools, Middle Schools and High Schools
- » Summer Jobs for 16+ year olds
- » Work-Based Learning Jobs - Work with WBL Coordinators and Students
- » Contributing to MAGIC Camp - Ask women in your Company to Lead
- » Sponsor a Class for SkillsUSA & CareerExpo attendance
- » Storage Shed on School Campus

We Need a Lot of People
Doing a Lot of Little Things

