Veteran Leaders Share Life's Lessons

This program is designed to equip young professionals with the insights and skills needed to become successful leaders in today's ever-evolving marketplace. Our panelists will share valuable lessons learned throughout their careers and discuss how they navigate complex challenges.

Recognizing that collaboration is essential for success, they will also reveal their proven strategies for fostering a strong, winning culture within their organizations and among stakeholders. With decades of combined industry experience, our panelists will share their unique career journeys, offering perspectives on leadership, professional growth, and their commitment to empowering others to achieve success.

Blake Stalnaker, the 2024-2025 Young Leadership Program Chair and project manager with Sheridan Construction, will serve as our moderator.
